Message from the Headteacher

Dear Parents,

Again at swimming this week lots of children passed various levels. The certificates are awarded in our Friday Celebration assembly. The progress the children have made with swimming has been amazing. Well done to all for their determination and perseverance with this vital skill.

Thank you to all who attended the,Condoover residential information evening. If you were unable to attend, an information pack will be sent home with your child. Please look out for them in their book bag.

Have an enjoyable weekend

Best Wishes

Mrs K. Yuen

The Magistrates in the Community Visit

On Wednesday Vine class were thrilled to have a visit from Local Magistrates in the community. The children undertook various roles as they re-enacted a mock trial around cyber – bullying.

"It was really interesting, we found about the different roles of a judge and a magistrate" "The mock trial was fun- it really made you think!" The magistrates were most impressed by the children's absorption into role and their exemplary conduct. – Well done Vine Class.

Last Year's Palms needed

Please can you send into school any palms that you have. Fr James is going to be conducting a burning of the palms Service next week, in readiness for Ash Wednesday.

Recycle with Michael

Thank you for all the clothing donations. Your generosity has raised £76 for the Salvation Army and the same for school funds.

Value Focus for January

Your help is needed

We are collecting Sainsbury's vouchers again. All vouchers gratefully received.
