What do you like most about the school?

The ethos of the school that the children are taught to look after each other. The staff and the children are very caring. The small size of the school is good. The children's good behaviour and the friendly staff. A very good range of activities. Excellent resources for such a small school. The school promotes caring values and continues to develop of activities provided for extra-curricular experiences. Friendly, welcoming atmosphere. The staff support the individual talents of pupils. I like everything about the school.

What areas would you like us to develop?

More photos and regular updates, the use of a blog would be nice.
The children could be read with more often.
Parents have asked for help and been turned away in the past. More support for working parents including later parents evening slots. Creativity and sociability could be developed.
Missing information and not finding parent pay very helpful. Not happy to have things electronically. Emails are often not responded to. The development of a language programme.
