Summer Term 1 – 2016

Message from the PE Co-ordinator

Dear Parents,

We have a very busy Spring Term 2 and we are so pleased with the effort and achievements of the children in and out of school. We have seen the KS1 and KS2 children taking part in hockey, netball and ball skills this term. The KS1 and FS pupils have also raised money for charity through their sponsored run. We have lots of exciting events this term and

Well Done!

Miss V. Jackson

Results and Achievements

Netball Team at Level 2 School Games

After winning the Chenderit Schools Partnership Netball tournament, St. Mary's won their place in the South Northants and Daventry Level 2 Games. 11 different schools from across the county competed in the tournament and St. Mary's started in Pool 3. St. Mary's won the Pool rounds with a win and a draw which meant a guaranteed top 4 place in the competition. In the finals St. Mary's persevered and won 1 and lost 2, which meant taking

3rd place out of 90 schools!

Well Done to Anna Flynn, Darcey Heritage, Emily Rowe, Isabelle Bergendorff, Niamh Quinn, Toby Hawkins and Tom Lifford (and Joe Heritage for his contribution). A full report can be found at
