

Wow!

The United Kingdom

In Carpenters Class the children have started a new topic on the United Kingdom. The children really enjoyed completing the entrance ticket and playing games that helped us to learn the continents of the world, the different countries and where the UK is.

