Headteacher's Message

Dear Parents,

Wow! What a busy week. Thank you to everyone that was able to donate to CAFOD through our bake sale. The children all had a fantastic time baking during the whole school bake off!

Mrs Vale led the whole school through our World Book Day celebrations including a local author visit, we all had a brilliant day, please do take a look at the gallery link.

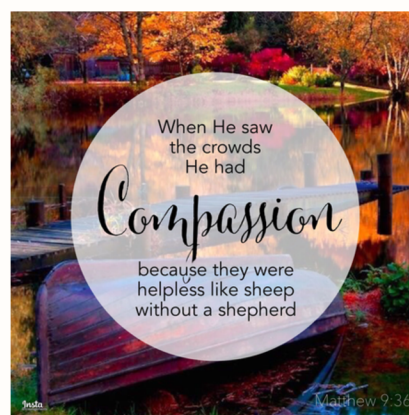

Mrs Clipson and Fishermen class learnt lots about 'Toys from the past' on their class trip to Banbury Museum, we can't wait to see the Wow report.

Carpenters Class have one more week of Forest School before Shepherds class begin their block. Thank you to Mrs Clipson, our forest school leader for always making these sessions so exciting.

Mr Causebrook has sent home a letter inviting parents of children in Year 6 to attend an information session on SATS, please return the slip confirming attendance.
