

British Science Week Fishermen Class Wow!

Fishermen Class explored how animals are adapted to their habitats. We looked at different animals from around the world and they cope with hot and cold temperatures.

Atomic Tom helped us to understand how food chains work. We played a game all about producers, consumers and predators.

Our last session was finding out about different animals diets. We got to explore owl pellets and find out what small animals they had for lunch!

